BANDITS SHOOT TWO AFTER HOLD UP

Detective Sergt.-Alligood and E. E. Monk Wounded

TOLEDO, O., PAIR HELD

Shooting Followed Hold up in Store—Alligood Shot in Abdomen—Monk, a Bystander, Shot in Right Hip.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 9.—In a running gun fight at Twelfth and E streets northwest at 8:30 o'clock last night, during which pistols blazed a dozen times, Detective Sergeant Frank M. Alligood was shot in the abdomen and seriously wounded, and Edwin E. Monk, a metal worker, 2734 Sherman avenue, in the right hip.

The shooting followed the hold-up of the furniture store of William Gildenhorn, 1223 Pennsylvania avenue, by two Toledo hold-up men, Joe Homer, 23 years old, and Walter Randall, 21, a few moments before.

Both were captured at pistol point by Bicycleman John H. Fowler and Detective Thomas Walsh on F street, in front of the Frank R. Jellett store.

Two young men entered the store shortly after 8 o'clock, ostensibly to purchase a pair of shoes.

They appeared hard to satisfy and "foiled" around nearly an hour while other customers came in and went out. Finally, Randall, it is said, with the new shoes on his feet reached in his pocket and pulled out a gun.

Gildenhorn was forced into a room in the rear, gagged with two handkerchiefs and bound with a small rope to a water pipe. Homer, it is alleged, wrapped up two pairs of shoes, two hats, and rifled the cash register.

Randall, becoming impatient, went to the door leading to the front of the store, the police say, and asked Homer if everything was all right.

In this short interval, Gildenhorn managed to free one of his hands, and the minute Randall slammed the door, reached down and untied the rope from his ankles. Half an hour later at Number One he still had the rope around one leg.

The two gunmen ran west on Pennsylvania avenue, with Gildenhorn not far behind, yelling for the police. Reaching Thirteenth street, they turned north, doubling back on E street.

By this time a small crowd had taken up the chase, leaving Gildenhorn behind.

Half way between Thirteenth and Twelfth streets Monk, a bystander, raised a small piece of pipe to hit Homer. Randall, it is said, shot him from behind.

This was the first shot fired and Bicycle Policeman J. H. Fowler, standing at Thirteenth and F streets, hearing it, and seeing the crowd, ran east on F street to head off the fugitives.

In the meantime the gunmen reached Twelfth street on E and turned north, where, finding the pursuit growing hotter, one turned and fired again, this time dropping Alligood.

Alligood, with Detective Thomas Walsh, who was "in" at the arrest of the two men, just a few minutes before had run his car up the decline runway of the Service Garage, where he had put it away for the night.

He was on the second floor when he heard sounds of the chase, and ran out, firing at the gunmen across the street. He pursued them to the corner where he received his wound.

Reaching F street, the two again fouled back westward, passing Officer Fowler who, because of the closeness of the pursuing crowd was unable to determine which were the pursued.

"There they go," yelled some one, and Fowler called for the two high-waymen to stop. When they failed to heed him, he fired once and started in pursuit, firing again as he ran. Thoroughly winded, and one of them showing signs of being wounded, they fired their guns downward, and stumbling over a gravel pile in front of the store of Frank R. Jellett, where building alterations are in progress, surrendered without a struggle.

Lieut. Guy C. Burlingame examined the men, and discovered that they answered the description given in a lookout sent from Baltimore shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Making 4 to 6 Per Cent Beer.

Many of the principal breweries of New York and Chicago are making beer containing from 4 to 6 per cent of alcohol, it was learned yesterday. The Chicago cases are already in the hands of legal experts, according to William M. Williams, commissioner of internal revenue.

Both Commissioner Williams and Prohibition Commissioner Kramer refused to comment on action against New York and New Jersey breweries. Rigorous action, they said, will be taken against any breweries found violating the law. It was also admitted that whisky is still being openly sold over many bars in many large cities, notably Chicago and New York.

To Entertain Players

O. D. Boat Club To Be Host To Cast in "Oh, Oh, Cindy."

The final performance last night of "Oh, Oh, Cindy" played to a "full house" and was of the same high order of the previous nights shows.

Miss Abbie Hoxton, as "Lilly White" scored another hit and was presented with a bouquet of chrysanthemums. Too much cannot be said in praise of her work in a trying part.

Miss Louise Griffith, the leading lady of the show, has the finish and noise of a professional, and her rendition of her lines could not be improved upon.

The Old Dominion Boat Club is to be congratulated upon having such splendid talent to present their benefit play.

On Wednesday evening of next week the boat club will give a dance at the Elks' Home in honor of all who took part in the play, and by this entertainment endeavor to express their appreciation of the excellent work done by the cast and supporting choruses.

HARDING'S GOSPEL AFFRONT TO NATION

Makes Declaration of Independence Scrap of Paper, Says Cox

SAYS IT CREED OF CAIN

Democratic Candidate in a Notable Address Scores League Wreckers Asks Where Taft Stands

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 9.—Scathing attack was made here last night by Governor Cox, of Ohio, upon the recent league pronouncements of Senator Harding, his Republican opponent.

Senator Harding's creed, the Democratic presidential candidate declared in an address here closing his Kentucky campaign, was forced "under pressure of a threat from Senator Borah," and is "America and America only."

"To preach such a gospel of selfishness is an offense to the decency of America," said Governor Cox, citing humanitarian and commercial and other world relationships. "Such a proclamation of provincialism is little short of treason to our traditions."

"If we were to heed the preaching of the prophet of Marion," Governor Cox continued, "we might just as well make our Declaration of Independence a scrap of paper; we might just as well burn all our great Americans, past and present, in effigy."

In view of Senator Harding's stand against the present league, Governor Cox asked whether former President Taft and other Republicans favoring American membership would continue supporting Mr. Harding. The Governor also asked whether Judge Taft's candidate is giving him an entirely different assurance, from his speeches and requested Mr. Taft to tell "in front of the curtain what is going on behind."

The Governor's address shone to several thousand persons in a religious revival tabernacle closed a strenuous day's campaigning, in which he delivered thirteen speeches across Kentucky. In virtually all he preached the league of nations and progressivism and flayed the senatorial oligarchy.

In his opening speech yesterday morning at Paducah, he reiterated that the "oligarchy" was seeking to "annex the presidency," and also said that a "great menace" next to scrapping of the league, was the prospect of four appointments soon to vacancies on the United States Supreme Court.

Regarding Senator Harding's position, this Governor said to his tabernacle audience last night:

"Under the pressure of threat from Senator Borah, the senatorial candidate for the presidency is now out in the open, and his creed is 'America and America only.' To use his words, 'we must consecrate ourselves to the welfare of America and not to the rest of the world.' Must we forget that we are still a part of the world, the dominion over which is in the hands of God? Even the senatorial oligarchy can't promise us a new world of our own."

"If we are to live commercially, we have to trade with others. If we are to cut our products to our own consumption, the mere adoption of that policy would carry us back fifty years industrially. But there is something more than the practical side. Are we to close our souls against every thought of sympathy and help and leadership? Are we to say we have no interest in Ireland, nor Germany, nor Austria, nor Russia, nor Poland, nor the other nations of the world struggling for democracy? Are we to close our eyes to the picture of starvation which spreads over half of Europe? Can we deny the league of nations, which brings an end to expensive armaments, establishes credit and permit people who are willing to work to have bread?"

"Does not physical isolation mean moral isolation? The acceptance of the creed of the senatorial candidate is little less than a notice to America to close our churches, our schools and our universities to think on itself, to deny the soul any right in humane determination."

"To preach such a gospel of selfishness is an offense to the decency of America. Such a proclamation of provincialism is little short of treason to our traditions. The spirit of the just men made perfect our pilgrim fathers, who thought they were building on this continent a country dedicated to the practice of the principles of religion, must have turned in their graves. If our nation were to heed the pagan counsels of the reactionary candidate, we might as well confess ourselves a pagan people, whose only god is Beelzebub. On us would be marks of Cain who was driven out of the garden of God because he denied any moral obligation or social responsibility. Are we to substitute the creed of Cain for the creed of Christ? The founder of Christianity preached the doctrine of mutual service, affirming the duty strong ones owe to those who are sad, and to those who suffer.

"If we were to heed the preaching of the prophet of Marion, we might just as well make our declaration of independence a scrap of paper; we might just as well burn all our great Americans, past and present, in effigy; we might just as well close the doors of all our universities; we might just as well make a bonfire of our Bibles and tear down our family altars; we might just as well begin now to train our future among us are those who recognize citizens to believe that greatest selfishness rather than service is the creed of America."

"I am curious to see what Ex-President Taft now will say about it all. In the face of open pronouncements by the senatorial candidate to Senators Johnson and Borah, Ex-President Taft has attempted to persuade the friends of the league that his candidate, after all, will be all right. Now let us analyze that. We have the definite statement of the senatorial candidate that he is against the league now in any form, regardless of any kind of reservations. Are we to understand that in the face of these public avowals Judge Taft's candidate is giving him an entirely different assurance?"

"If that be true, can Judge Taft worthily continue a part of the conspiracy of deceit? He owes much to the American people. They have conferred upon him the greatest honor within the gift of the people. In common gratitude, in common good faith and in self-respect, he should tell in front of the curtain what is going on behind. This is no time for dissimbling."

Mr. and Mrs. Bayless Entertain
Mr. and Mrs. Hilman Bayless entertained Wednesday evening at their home in the Mount Vernon district, in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Hemming, their son-in-law and daughter, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mr. John Fahline, brother of Mrs. Bayless, of Sharon, Pa., Wednesday was also the birthday of the hostess.

The house was beautifully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers, the color scheme throughout the house was red and yellow.

There were about eighty guests present from Baltimore, Washington, Alexandria and Fairfax county. Dancing was indulged in until midnight, when an old fashioned country supper was served. Mrs. Bayless received many beautiful gifts, and was assisted in entertaining the guests by her daughter, Mrs. William F. Root, and Miss Jennie T. Bayless.

REUNION OF VETERANS ENDS WITH PARADE

Confederate Comrades Re-Enact Thrilling War Review

HOMEWARD BOUND

After Four Strenuous Days of Social Activities and Renewal of Reminiscences Close 30th Session

Houston, Tex., Oct. 9.—Fatigued with four days of unaccustomed exercise, which culminated in a two-mile march Thursday morning, but with another reunion around which to weave reminiscences thousands of Confederate veterans last night started on their journey homeward.

They were with a happy lot, although occasionally a touching scene was enacted when an old soldier bade good-by to a comrade whom he knew he might not see again.

For most of the veterans the thirtieth annual reunion ended when the parade disbanded shortly after noon Thursday. A grand ball Thursday night attracted some, but for the majority the one big event of the four days' meeting the march with her comrades of the sixties was over and they were ready to return home. The parade was estimated at seven miles in length, although the line of march was slightly less than two miles. It required two hours and ten minutes to pass a given point.

To the veterans who marched, however, it was not a parade but a military review. The gray hosts were marching again before their commander-in-chief, and the memory of Robert E. Lee straightened many stooped shoulders and carried their owners to the end, with faltering, but determined footsteps. Memory played a trick and rolled away the years until they could see in the thousands of women and girls who lined the streets cheering and waving flags, their hoop skirts swaying of more than fifty years ago, who waved farewell as they marched to battle.

Some of the old soldiers were forced to drop out of the line before the march ended. Others rode in automobiles. Only half a dozen had to be taken to the emergency hospital for treatment, and many amputees placed at intervals in the procession all empty told the story of the unending will which carried the old men through the fatiguing march.

Special trains left Houston at frequent intervals last night, in addition to the regular trains, which were crowded to capacity.

Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow left for New York where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in this city.

THE FASTING RECORD.

In spite of persistent statements by the officers of the British prison of Brixton, the opinion is held by many in this country that Lord Mayor MacSwiney must be receiving nourishment in some form. It is held that since Dr. Tanner's record of 40 days has always been considered the limit of human endurance, it is inconceivable that the Irish Lord Mayor could be enjoying "a restful night, with no sign of immediate danger," after 54 days of abstinence from all food.

There is, however, this difference between Dr. Tanner and MacSwiney: The doctor sought to break existing records and see how far he could go and still win back to health; MacSwiney was determined simply to go the limit without regard to his own life. It is interesting in this connection to read of a case here at home which seems to indicate that MacSwiney may prolong his fast to double the period covered by Dr. Tanner. In Thursday's news columns appeared a dispatch from Washington, running as follows:

While Benjamin J. Salmon, a conscientious objector, continued his hunger strike, which began July 15, when he was admitted to St. Elizabeth's Military Hospital here, attorneys sought yesterday to obtain his release from the institution through habeas corpus proceedings. The Civil Liberties League, of New York, is aiding in the effort.

Immediately upon being brought to St. Elizabeth's from Fort Douglas, Utah, Salmon, whose home is in Denver, refused to eat. Despite partly successful attempts at forcible feeding, he has maintained his attitude for 84 days.

Just how much the "partly successful attempts at forcible feeding" have helped to sustain life in the Washington hungerstriker is, of course, problematical. But his record of 84 days is sufficiently remarkable to put Lord Mayor MacSwiney somewhat in the shade. The testimony of the Brixton authorities should be accepted at its face value, for they have complete surveillance of their prisoner and if he were being fed by his friends they would know of it.

Whatever may come to MacSwiney's hunger-strike he seems likely to establish a new record in fasting which few, not having his reckless motive, will attempt to beat.

CAN'T SCRAP LEAGUE.

There is a good deal of loose talk about Senator Harding and "scrapping" the League of Nations, as though it were in his power to perform such a feat. Of course, all he can do, if elected President, will be to keep the United States out of the League. Inasmuch as it is a going concern, which is functioning regularly, Harding can no more scrap it than he can scrap the British Empire. It may be within his power to do irretrievable damage to the honor and prestige of this country, but he cannot destroy the League, which now embraces nearly all the civilized world in its membership. It is not at all likely that in this matter Europe is going to submit to dictation from such purely provincial politicians as Harding, Johnson, Borah, Penrose, Brandegee, etc. These worthies may dominate the G. O. P., but the world is not yet taking orders from them.

REPUBLICAN BUNK.

It is interesting to learn from a speech of Senator Harding that high tariff is the cause of high wages. It happens that wages never were anything like as high as they are now.

Insurance is the best form of saving, because it encourages you to save regularly and protects your family from the start. Investigate our Twenty Year Endowment plan. National Life Insurance Company of Vermont. (Mutual) and the tariff is the Underwood tariff. If the working classes are indebted to the tariff for their pay, they will take good care to elect Mr. Harding to stay home.

SPORTS

The Virginia Athletic Club will play the Washington Athletic Club tomorrow at 8:15 on the Shipyard grounds.

The Virginia A. C. wishes to thank all who so generously contributed last Sunday for the Fort Washington game, and hope to see a large crowd out this Sunday. The Washington A. C. is judged to be one of the best in the District, and a good game can be looked for.

Number Of Radicals Deported On Soviet Ark Reported Returning

New York, Oct. 9.—Col. Arthur B. Woods, chairman of the American Legion's Americanization committee, has been notified that a number of radicals, recently deported on the so-called "Soviet Ark" Buford, are on their way back to this country, it became known yesterday.

Colonel Woods received the information in a telegram from Charles Stewart Davison, chairman of the American Defense Society, who asked for an immediate conference, with a view to co-operating with the American Legion in urging the removal of Louis F. Post, Assistant Secretary of Labor.

Mr. Davison did not disclose the source of his "tip" that radicals are returning here.

I. O. O. F. HOLD PARADE AND BOOST TEMPLE PROJECT

Richmond, Va., Oct. 9.—Henderson Lodge, No. 105, I. O. O. F., held a parade Thursday in honor of Grand Master W. E. Beverly, who is in Richmond. Many members turned out. The line of march was from Tenth and Broad Streets, up Broad street to Monroe, thence to Grace and from there to the hall. The procession was led by Thomas B. Morton, marshal of the parade.

Arriving at the hall, Governor Davis made an address of welcome and gave a general talk on topics of vital interest of the day. Mrs. Emma Funk, of Roanoke, president of the Rebecca Assembly, spoke and was followed by Grand Master W. E. Beverly. Talks were also given by Attorney General John R. Saunders, Dr. Allison, of Alexandria, and Congressman A. J. Montague. After the speaking, music was rendered.

An enthusiastic meeting was held in which the subject of building a new temple was brought up and was greeted with acclaim by members of the lodge. Three hundred persons were turned away from the doors and standing room was at a premium.

Odds Now 7 to 5 That Brooklyn Will Win Series

New York, Oct. 9.—Betting on the world series baseball games took a new spurt in Wall street yesterday. Many firms reported they had thousands of dollars placed and more to offer.

Despite the fact the Brooklynns have a lead of one game, even money is offered on the chances of the Indians defeating them in today's game. The Dodgers, however, are a strong favorite over the Indians for winning the series, the odds being 7 to 5.

277 Atlantic City Saloon Men Indicted

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 9.—The Atlantic County grand jury yesterday returned indictments against 277 saloon proprietors, charging violation of a State statute.

The men were alleged to have permitted their Federal licenses to lapse while continuing to sell liquor. Most of the saloons were beach front resorts.

GREAT PICTURES COMING

The Richmond theatre will hit into the two-day game in earnest next week, when three extraordinarily big pictures are booked to show during the six days the theatre is open. These pictures have made great hits in other cities and some of them come to Alexandria before showing in Washington.

The first on the boards, the picture scheduled for Monday and Tuesday is a scream from start to finish. And why shouldn't it be, when Constantine Talmadge, one of the greatest comedienne on the screen is playing the stellar role. Miss Talmadge appears as Mary Wayne, in "Good References," the story by A. J. Rath, which caused considerable of a sensation when it appeared in the All-Story Magazine.

For Tuesday and Wednesday the theatre has booked a great play dealing with the lives of plain, everyday, country people, with Lloyd Hughes in the title part. The story is by Julien Josephson, the author of practically all of Charles Ray's plays, and an all star cast assists in the carrying out of the big scenes. The picture is the newest drama that has been produced by Thomas H. Ince, the wizard of the screen and is one of the specials put out by the Associated Producers, composed of Thos. H. Ince, Mack Sennett, Marshall Neilan, Allan Dwan, George Loane Tucker, Maurice Tourneur and J. Parker Read, Jr.

Friday and Saturday Lionel Barrymore, one of the greatest stars of either legitimate or picture stage, will be the attraction in "The Master Mind," a crook picture that is full to the brim of tense moments and thrills. Gypsy O'Brien appears as Maggie Flynn, in support of the star and the picture is one which is sure to please everybody attending Friday or Saturday.

Several excellent pictures are booked to be shown at the Ingomar during the coming week, beginning Monday with Constance Binney, in "The Stolen Kiss," and Chapter four of "Ruth of the Rockies." Tuesday, Ethel Clayton in "A Lady in Love." Wednesday, Douglas Fairbanks in "His Majesty, the American." Thursday, Louise Huff in "What a Woman Wants." Friday, Enid Bennett in "Hairpins," together with chapter 10 of "The Third Eye." Saturday, E. K. Lincoln, in "The Inner Voice."

At the Richmond on next Friday and Saturday an added attraction will be the Mack Sennett comedy that was promised the theatre goers of the city some time ago, but which failed to arrive on time, "A Kick in High Life." Louise Fazenda, Billy Armstrong, Myrtle Lind and Harry Gribbon are stars in the Mack Sennett comedy, "Back to the Kitchen," that will be seen at the Ingomar on Tuesday evening.

DON'T WASTE TIME

It's a waste of time to experiment with liniments and plasters when you have a dull, throbbing backache or sharp, stabbing twinges. Get after the cause! Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this.

William Dawson, blacksmith, 806 Duke street, Alexandria, says: "Before I started using Doan's Kidney Pills I had rubbed my back with liniments and taken different remedies up anything and I had to take hold of something to help me straighten up. Mornings my back felt as though it were broken. Sharp shooting pains would catch me, and I got so I thought I would have to give up. Finally, through the recommendation of a friend, I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, which I bought at Summers' Drug Store. Doan's soon convinced me they were the remedy I needed, and before long my back felt so strong I could shoe horses all day and not feel a bit worse for the strain." (Above statement given April 13, 1915).

Lasting Results
On March 14, 1919 Mr. Dawson added: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills gave me has proven permanent. I can't say too much for Doan's." 60c at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

IN MEMORIAM.

At 10:30 A. M. on October 9, 1920, at the residence of her daughter, Ellen Johnson, who died one year ago today, October 9, 1919.

At the bed side of our dear mother. Night by night, and day by day. We watched her loving hands grow thinner. And saw her slowly fade away.

In the grave yard quietly sleeping. Where the flowers gently wave. Lies the one we loved so dearly. In blessed and lonely grave.

A loving one from us has gone. A voice we loved, is still. A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

By her devoted daughter and grandchildren. 242-1p

Hudson and Essex Cars Return to Bedrock Prices

Reduced $200 to $450

Thousands have planned to buy Hudson and Essex cars this Fall. For five years the Super-Six has been the world's largest selling fine car. In eighteen months Essex sales made an unmatched record. What must now be the demand for them at these bedrock prices? But labor and material shortages in early summer had forced reductions in schedules for Fall and Winter. And now the return to normal in prices assures such an immediate increase in sales that a scarcity of Hudson and Essex cars seems certain.

Choose your car now. Learn how the price reduction increases its attractiveness. And remember that in either Hudson or Essex you obtain exclusive motors—for they are patented.

You can save $200 to $450 on the car and model of your choice. Act promptly if you want delivery this Fall.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What Is CASTORIA
Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
